

About Emerging Creations, LLC

Emerging Creations, LLC is a Web Site Development, Design and Maintenance company founded in 1999.

Our Goal ...

...is to design a website for you that is artistically designed and created to effectively target your desired audience and to be easily to access and manipulate. This is important so people will enjoy searching your web site and want to return.

At Emerging Creations, we research who your target audience will be and the information you wish to convey to them. In addition, we help you to promote your website.

Our graphics are custom designed for your particular needs and taste... the look and feel you want with your site... colors, layout, and special effects.

Expand your business to places far beyond your dreams.

Website...

We can design a new website, or modify you're existing website's design. The purpose of a web site is about getting results, reaching your target market, establishing or expanding a business, optimizing production and distribution, and improving your business.

One of the most important services we offer is making sure people can find your website when they need it! It's not enough to merely put a site up and wait for it to work for you. In order to be effective, a website must be well thoughtout and marketed through the existing business or through complimentary businesses on the internet.

We offer customized web site package designs. We develop a package designed especially for you.

Our services include:

Contact us.

Submitting your site to the major search engines

Seeking out specialty search engines and index sites suited to your industry or product

Creating keywords and descriptions to uniquely identify your site

Helping you choose a memorable and easy-to-use domain name for your site

Complete integration with your existing off-line marketing plan

Charting your website's effectiveness through the use of server statistic logs

Analyzing the design and content of your site, to maximize marketing potential

Periodic review of your website and your target market

Promotions and attention-seeking events designed to entice visitors back to your website

Recommendations for off-line promotional opportunities and strategies for your site

Getting to your website should be easy.

Business Material s...

In addition, we can design a marketing package to include letterhead, brochures and business cards artistically designed to your businesses needs.
